Key Community Group

Located in the heart of Coffs Harbour, Key Community Group offers two beautiful and versatile spaces designed to bring your special event to life. Key Café, with its warm and vibrant atmosphere, and The Grounds on West High Street, offering a relaxed, open-air setting perfect for unforgettable celebrations.

From intimate gatherings to larger occasions, our spaces provide the ideal backdrop for events that are both stylish and memorable. Whether you're planning a sophisticated sit-down function or a relaxed celebration under the lights, our dedicated team will work closely with you to create an experience that reflects your vision.

More than just a venue, your event makes a meaningful impact. As a not-for-profit social enterprise, every booking with Key Community Group directly supports local programs that empower young people, individuals with disability, and others facing barriers to employment.

Celebrate with purpose while we take care of every detail.

Perfect for birthdays, baby showers, engagements, weddings, christenings and celebrations of life, Key Community Group offers flexible spaces, personalised service, and an experience your guests will remember.
